Introduction

1. The seventieth meeting of the Compliance Committee under the Convention on Access to Information, Public Participation in Decision-making and Access to Justice in Environmental Matters (Aarhus Convention) was held from 12–16 April 2021. In the light of the exceptional situation related to the ongoing coronavirus disease (COVID-19) pandemic, both the Committee and participants participated in the meeting virtually.

A. Attendance

2. Three of the nine Committee members were present throughout the entire meeting: Mr. Jonas Ebbesson (Chair); Mr. Marc Clement; and Mr. Dmytro Skrylnikov. Mr. Peter Oliver was unable to attend the afternoon session on 13 April but was present for the rest of the meeting; Mr. Alexander Kodjabashev (Vice-Chair) was unable to attend the morning session of 15 April but was present for the rest of the meeting. Ms. Heghine Grigoryan was unable to attend the meeting on 14 and 16 April. Ms. Fruzsina Bögös was present at the afternoon sessions of 12 and 14 April and the whole session on 16 April. Mr. Jerzy Jendroska was able to attend the afternoon sessions of 13, 14 and 16 April. Ms. Áine Ryall (Vice-Chair) was unable to participate in the meeting apart from the afternoon session of 16 April. Members having declared a conflict of interest with respect to particular cases did not participate in closed sessions deliberating on those cases.

3. Representatives of the Party concerned and the communicant of communications PRE/ACCC/C/2020/185 (United Kingdom), took part in the open sessions on 12 and 16 April 2021.

4. Representatives of Romania, the European Union, and Portugal on behalf of the Presidency of the Council of the European Union, participated in the open session of 12 April 2021. Representatives of Belarus participated in all open sessions.

5. Participating as observers during the open session of 12 April 2021 were representatives of the non-governmental organizations ClientEarth and OEKOBUERO as well as the communicant of communication ACCC/C/2017/147.

6. Representatives of the public, Ms. Emily Kel and Ms. Gabbie Asher participated in the open session of 16 April 2021.

7. Earthjustice, which attended on behalf of the European ECOForum, participated as observer in all open sessions.

B. Organizational matters

8. The Chair of the Compliance Committee, Mr. Ebbesson, opened the meeting.

9. The Committee adopted its agenda as set out in document ECE/MP.PP/C.1/2021/4.

10. The Chair reported that, since its sixty-ninth meeting (25–29 January 2021), the Committee had held four virtual meetings, on 9 February, 17 and 31 March, and 6 April 2021, which had been dedicated to the preparation of advice with respect to request ACCC/M/2017/3 (European Union) and its deliberations on its draft findings on communications ACCC/C/2015/128 (European Union), ACCC/C/2015/130 (Italy), ACCC/C/2016/143 (Czechia) and ACCC/C/2017/147 (Republic of Moldova), ACCC/C/2017/156 (United Kingdom) and submission ACCC/S/2015/2 (Belarus).

11. Regarding communications received before 1 March 2021 (the deadline for receipt of communications for the seventieth meeting), the Chair reported that he and Vice-Chairs Mr. Kodjabashev and Ms. Ryall had held a virtual meeting on 15 March 2021 to determine which of the communications received by the deadline sufficiently met the required format to be forwarded to the Committee for consideration as to their preliminary admissibility. The Chair and Vice-Chairs had decided that communication PRE/ACCC/C/2021/185 (United Kingdom) should be forwarded to the Committee for consideration of preliminary admissibility at its seventieth meeting and had requested the secretariat to post that communication on the Committee's website in advance of the meeting.

I. Submissions, referrals and requests under the Convention

12. The Committee noted that it had not received any new submissions, referrals or requests since its last meeting.

13. Concerning submission ACCC/S/2015/2 (Belarus), the Committee reported that it had continued its deliberations on its draft findings in closed session at its virtual meetings on 31 March and 6 April 2021. At the present meeting, the Committee continued its deliberations and agreed that it would continue those deliberations at an upcoming meeting with a view to completing its draft findings and, as appropriate, recommendations.

55. Concerning communication ACCC/C/2019/163 (Austria), the Committee agreed that it would decide how to proceed with the communication at an upcoming meeting.
56. Regarding communication ACCC/C/2019/164 (Ireland), the Committee noted that it had agreed to invite the communicant to comment on the submissions of the Party concerned on admissibility in its response to the communication and to decide how to proceed with the communication at an upcoming meeting, taking into account the information received from both parties.
57. Concerning communication ACCC/C/2019/168 (Iceland), the Committee agreed that it would decide how to proceed with the communication at an upcoming meeting.
58. With respect to communication ACCC/C/2019/173 (Sweden), the Committee noted that it had agreed to send questions to the Party concerned for clarification and that it would decide how to proceed with the communication at an upcoming meeting taking into account the information received from both parties.
59. Regarding communication ACCC/C/2019/174 (Sweden), the Committee agreed that it would decide how to proceed with the communication at an upcoming meeting.
60. With respect to communication ACCC/C/2020/177 (Bosnia and Herzegovina), the Committee noted that it had agreed to ask the Party concerned to expand its response of 23 November 2020 and to clarify whether it challenged the admissibility of the communication and to invite the communicant to comment on the reply of the Party concerned. The Committee agreed that it would decide how to proceed with the communication at an upcoming meeting, taking into account the information received from both parties.
61. Concerning communication ACCC/C/2020/178 (Germany), the Committee noted that the Party concerned had submitted its response to the communication on 13 August 2020 and that in its response it had challenged the communication's admissibility. The Committee agreed to invite the communicant to comment on the submissions made by the Party concerned on that issue and to decide how to proceed in the light of the information received.
62. With respect to communication ACCC/C/2020/179 (Serbia), the Committee noted that on 10 November 2020, the Party concerned submitted its response to the communication. The Committee agreed to decide how to proceed with the communication at an upcoming meeting.
63. Concerning communication ACCC/C/2020/181 (Netherlands), the secretariat had forwarded the communication to the Party concerned on 4 December 2020. The deadline of 4 May 2021 for its response had not yet expired and the Party's response had not yet been received.
64. With respect to communication ACCC/C/2020/182 (Belarus), the secretariat had forwarded the communication to the Party concerned on 4 December 2020. The deadline of 4 May 2021 for its response had not yet expired and the Party's response had not yet been received.
65. Regarding Communication ACCC/C/2020/183 (Spain), the secretariat had forwarded the communication to the Party concerned on 3 December 2020. The deadline of 3 May 2021 for its response had not yet expired and the Party's response had not yet been received.
66. With respect to communication ACCC/C/2020/184 (United Kingdom and European Union), at its sixty-ninth meeting, the Committee had determined the communication to be inadmissible. On 4 February 2021, the communicant was informed about the Committee's decision and on 11 March 2021 the communicant requested a reconsideration of the determination of inadmissibility. On 15 March 2021, the Chair and Vice-Chairs decided that the request for reconsideration did not identify a manifest error and that the determination of inadmissibility would stand.

67. Communication ACCC/C/2020/185 (United Kingdom) had been submitted on 28 February 2021 by Mr. Bradley Blitz, a member of the public. The communication alleges the violation of article 6 and 7 of the Convention with respect to public participation in the decision-making on the proposed development of the Hendon Hub. On 1 April 2021, the Party concerned provided comments on the preliminary admissibility of the communication. On 5 April 2021, the communicant submitted a statement on the preliminary admissibility of the communication and on 7 April 2021 a revised statement thereon. At its meeting, the Committee considered the preliminary admissibility of the communication. During the meeting the Committee heard the views of the communicant on the preliminary admissibility of the communication as well as those of the Party concerned. After considering in closed session the information received, the Committee noted that in none of the cases presented in the communication had the decision-making yet ended. For that reason, the Committee determined the communication to be inadmissible in accordance with paragraph 20 (d) of the annex to decision I/7 of the Meeting of the Parties to the Convention for not being compatible with decision I/7 or the Convention.

III. Reporting requirements

68. The Committee noted that the Meeting of the Parties, at its sixth session (Budva, Montenegro, 11–14 September 2017), had urged Parties that had not yet submitted their national implementation reports — i.e., Armenia, Bosnia and Herzegovina, the Netherlands, North Macedonia, the Republic of Moldova, Ukraine and the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland— to do so in the required format by 1 November 2017 at the latest (ECE/MP.PP/2017/2, para. 46). Notwithstanding that, none of the above-mentioned Parties had submitted their national implementation reports to the secretariat by 1 November 2017. The secretariat reported that Armenia, Bosnia and Herzegovina, the Netherlands, North Macedonia, Ukraine and the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland had submitted their reports. The Republic of Moldova had not yet submitted its report.

IV. Follow-up on specific cases of non-compliance

69. The Chair provided an update on any developments that had taken place since the Committee's sixty-ninth meeting with respect to decisions VI/8a–e and g–k of the Meeting of the Parties, as well as the follow-up procedure concerning the Committee's findings and recommendations on communications ACCC/C/2014/104 (Netherlands) and ACCC/C/2014/107 (Ireland).

70. In that regard, concerning decision VI/8j (Spain), the Committee noted that on 4 and 12 February 2021, respectively, the communicant of communication ACCC/C/2009/36 and the Party concerned had submitted further comments.

71. With respect to the follow-up on its findings on communication ACCC/C/2014/104 (Netherlands), the Committee noted that, on 17 February and 29 March 2021, respectively, the communicant and the Party concerned had each submitted an update with respect to the implementation of the Committee's findings and recommendations.

V. Programme of work and calendar of meetings

72. The Committee noted that, in the light of the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, its seventy-first meeting would be held virtually. The Committee also agreed to schedule virtual meetings at an increased frequency in the coming months in order to hasten the completion of findings on pending cases in order that the findings may be transmitted to the seventh session of the Meeting of the Parties for its endorsement.

VI. Other business

A. Modus operandi

73. The Chair expressed his appreciation for the proactive efforts made by the secretariat both before and throughout the meeting to enable the meeting to proceed smoothly despite the logistical challenges caused by the on-going coronavirus disease pandemic.

B. Other matters

74. The Chair reported that, on 18 March 2021, he gave a keynote speech titled “Environmental Rule of Law, Justice and Peace” in the opening session of a three-day conference on environmental governance for peace in Colombia.

75. The secretariat updated the Committee on the thirteenth meeting of the Task Force on Access to Justice which was held from the 15 to 16 February 2021 and was focused on promoting public interest litigation in environmental matters and promoting effective access to justice in information cases and cases relating to air quality. The secretariat further reported that the ninth meeting of the Task Force on Public Participation in Decision-making was held on 1 and 2 March 2021. The meeting focused on vulnerable and marginalized groups, their participation in decision-making and different methods and approaches on how to increase effectiveness of public participation in decision-making without entailing significant resources on the part of public authorities. The thematic sessions of the meeting addressed decision-making in the extractive industries sector, on energy and climate; and regarding emerging technologies.

76. The secretariat also informed participants about arrangements for the twenty-fifth meeting of the Working Group of the Parties which would be held in two slots. The first would take place on 3 May 2021 and would be dedicated to the presentation of briefs by the Chairs of the task forces on relevant developments and to a thematic session on promoting the Convention’s principles in international forums, including regarding issues of biosafety and geoengineering. The second slot would take place on 7 – 8 June 2021 and would focus on preparation for the seventh session of the Meeting of the Parties. At this session, a report of the Chair of the Compliance Committee was expected on the progress achieved by the Committee in its work and in its preparations to the Meeting of the Parties.

77. The secretariat further reported that on 11 May 2021 a meeting serviced by the Aarhus Convention would take place with the aim to promote synergies in implementing the Convention among different partners working to build capacity on the ground. One of the topics discussed would be the promotion of implementation of the Committee’s decisions on non-compliance. Partners will be informed of the major issues of non-compliance with the Convention per country and will be invited to encourage Aarhus Centres, regional environmental centres and other organisations to provide assistance in the implementation of those decisions.

78. The secretariat also reported that, in order to facilitate and raise awareness about the nomination process for new Committee members, it would issue a notification to all national focal points bringing to their attention the note issued in April 2020 on the membership of the Committee, describing the procedure based on decision 1/7 and also the requirements with respect to the nomination of new members.

79. Lastly, the secretariat reported that on 15 March 2021 it had provided written comments to the European Investment Bank on its proposed revised transparency and that on 22 March 2021 the secretariat had taken part in a side event organized by ESCAP and UNEP on enabling sustainable recovery from the pandemic through the promotion of access to information, public participation and access to justice in environmental decision-making.

The event was attended from countries from Asia and the Pacific region, and it explored the possibility of an instrument similar to the Aarhus Convention in that region.

80. Earthjustice reported on recent developments of the 46th session of the Human Rights Council which took place on 22 February – 24 March 2021, including the renewal of the mandate of the special rapporteur on human rights and the environment, and the possible creation of a new mandate on human rights and climate change at the next session in June. Moreover, a statement supported by 69 States calling for the Human Rights Council to recognize the human right to a healthy and sustainable environment had been presented to the session.

VII. Report and closure of the meeting

81. The Committee agreed to adopt its report through its electronic decision-making procedure after the meeting. The Chair then officially closed the seventieth meeting.
