

Work on poverty and inequality statistics under the Conference of European Statisticians

Vania Etropolska

UNECE Statistical Division

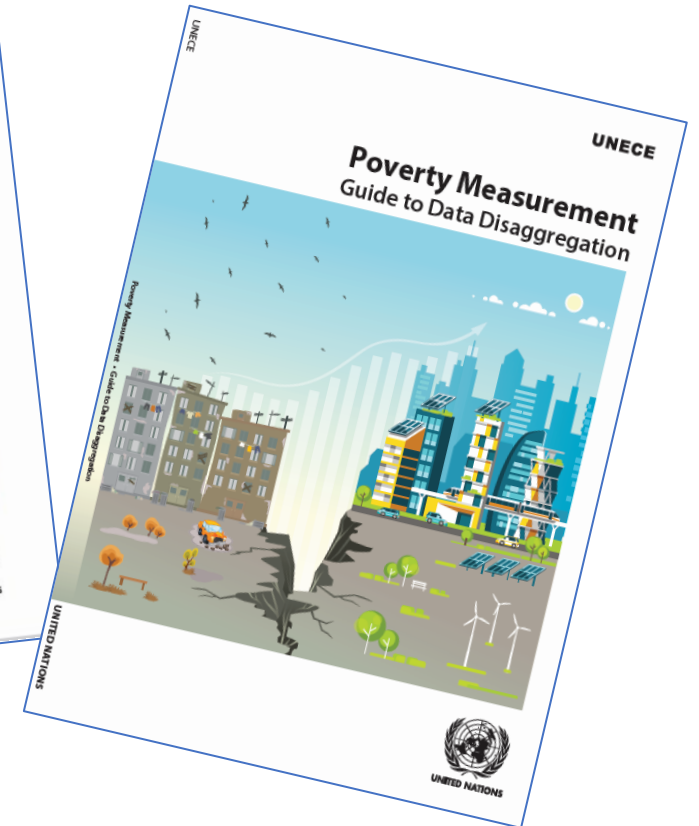

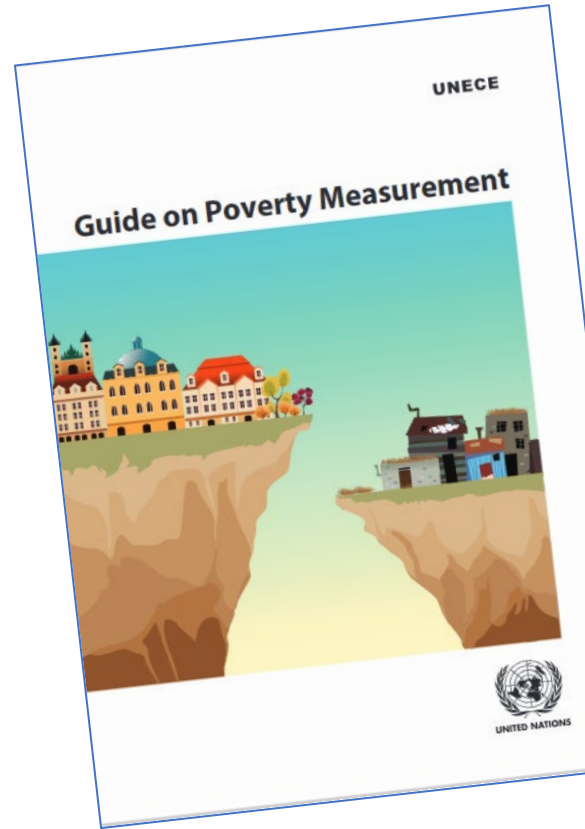

UNECE Online meetings on measuring poverty and inequality,
30 Nov 2021 Workshop and 1-2 Dec 2021 Group of Experts

Task teams of country experts

- Guide on Poverty Measurement (2017)
- Poverty Measurement: Guide to Data Disaggregation (2020)
- Approaches to Measuring Social Exclusion (forthcoming Feb. 2022)

Poverty statistics and the Covid pandemic

- Study on the practices of statistical offices in adapting their household surveys to the pandemic (July 2020). Updated 2021.
- UNECE Harmonised survey module for poverty measurement
- Three case studies
- UNECE wiki page on statistical response to Covid-19

Subjective poverty

- In-depth review (Oct. 2021)
- ToR of a new Task Force on Measuring Subjective Poverty (Feb. 2022)
 - Task Force: Canada, Poland, United Kingdom, Eurostat, OECD, World Bank....

You are welcome to express interest to join the group, either by writing in the chat or by sending an email to the secretariat: social.stats@un.org

2022 UNECE meetings on measuring poverty and inequality

7 December 2022 – Workshop on Harmonization of Poverty Statistics to Measure SDG 1 and 10

8-9 December 2022 – Group of Experts on Measuring Poverty and Inequality