

Forum for International Cooperation on Air Pollution

FICAP or 'The Forum'

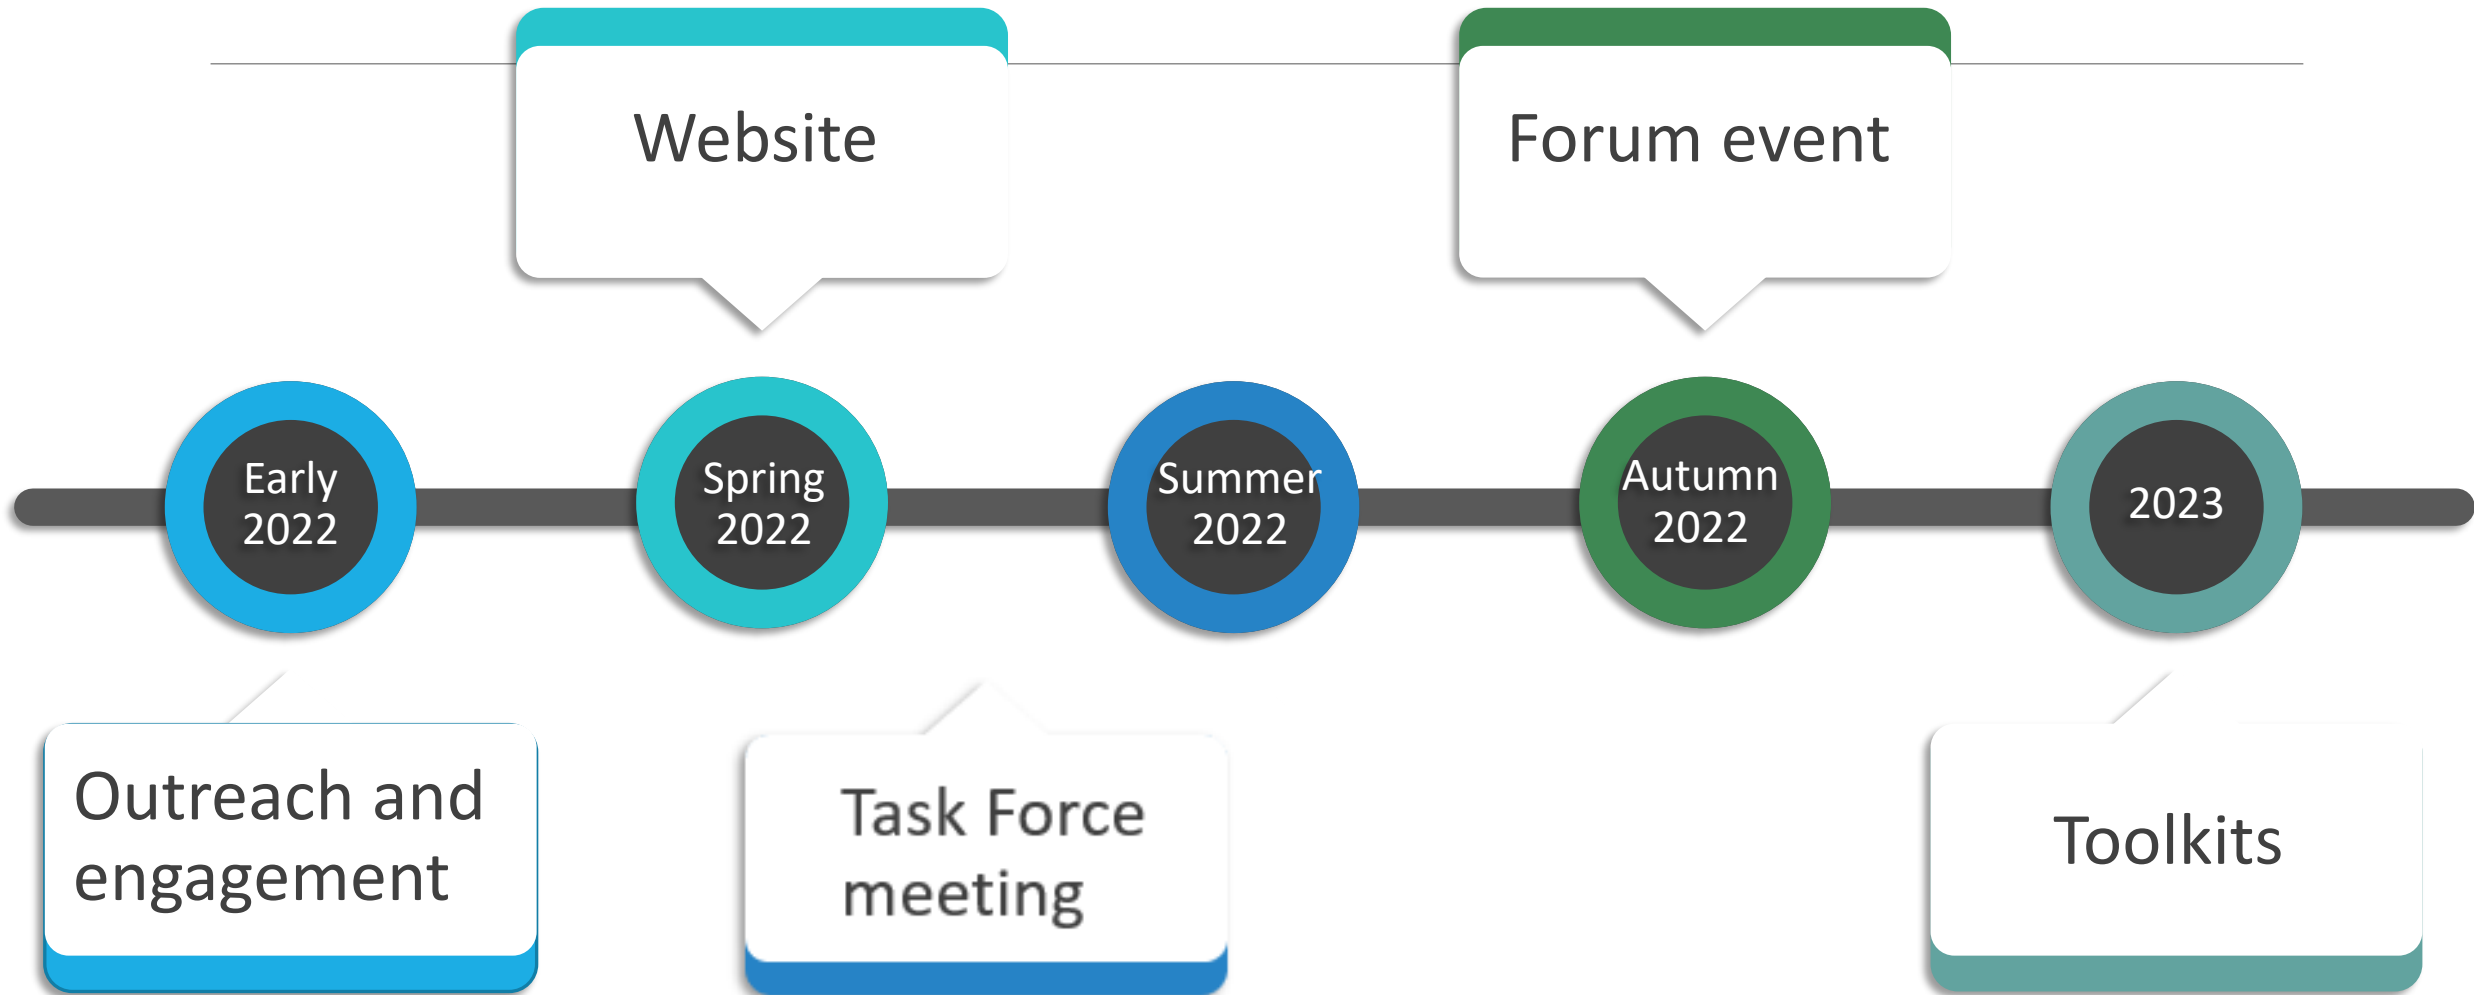

Vision, Aims and Mandate

- Vision: To promote international collaboration towards preventing and reducing air pollution to improve air quality globally
- Aim: To act as a forum for international exchange and mutual learning, to facilitate the sharing of science/technical and policy expertise internationally
- Mandate: To set up the Task Force to support the Forum

2022 – 2023 Objectives

1. Task Force Website
2. Outreach to Parties and non-Parties
3. First meeting of the Task Force
4. Establish structures for the Task Force
5. First event of the Forum
6. Increased public awareness of the Forum

2022 – 2023 Workplan ambition

Next steps and involvement

- Outreach and engagement for active participation in the Task Force to all Parties and non-Parties of the convention
- Planning and set-up of website to support the Forum
- Engagement and outreach with non-Parties and regional organisations for the Forum
- We welcome your support for the mandate

Questions and Contact

John Salter – John.Salter@Defra.gov.uk

Alison Davies – Alison.Davies@Defra.gov.uk

Anna Engleryd – Anna.Engleyd@swedishepa.se