Good practices and lessons learned in transboundary data exchange Outline

Jos Timmerman, Netherlands

(Waterframes)

Good practices and lessons learned in transboundary data exchange

Purpose of the publication:
- Collection of good practices
- Lessons learned

Content:
- Outline - lessons
- Template – good practices

Outline

1. Introduction

2. Set-up of the data exchange - responsible institutions, agreement / mandate, financing mechanism

3. Types of data and information exchanged

4. Harmonization and quality assurance – comparability of the data, quality assurance and quality control

5. Data management, processing and exchange - how data are stored, analyzed and interpreted and how the exchange of data is arranged

6. Reporting and use of data - purpose of the reporting, information for different (international) reporting obligations, data publicly available

7. Impacts and benefits

Template

- Riparian countries
- Responsible institutions
- Mandate for data exchange
- Financial arrangement
- Types of data and information exchanged
- Harmonization and quality assurance
- Form of exchange
- Frequency of exchange
- Data storage
- Reporting and information utilization
- Main difficulties and challenges
- Impacts of data and information exchange
- Additional information

Thank you for your attention!

jos.timmerman@waterframes.nl