   Documentation: Provisional agenda and annotations (ECE/CTCS/WP.7/GE.2/2022/1)

2. Matters arising since the last session

   (a) United Nations, United Nations Economic Commission for Europe and subsidiary bodies

   The secretariat will present matters arising from the United Nations, United Nations Economic Commission for Europe (ECE), the Steering Committee on Trade Capacity and Standards (SCTCS) and the Working Party on Agricultural Quality Standards (WP.7) having an impact on the work of the Specialized Section.

   (b) Recent developments in other organizations

   Representatives of other organizations and country delegates will inform the Specialized Section about activities taking place in their agencies that are of relevance to the work of the Specialized Section.

3. Preparations for the seventieth session of the United Nations Economic Commission for Europe

   At its meeting on 16 December 2021, the Executive Committee of the Economic Commission for Europe decided that the cross-cutting theme of the seventieth session of the Commission, to be held in 2023, will be “Digital and green transformations for sustainable development in the ECE region”. It also decided to invite relevant subsidiary bodies of ECE and the secretariat to consider how they may contribute, as appropriate, to the cross-cutting theme of the seventieth Commission session within their respective mandates, ongoing work and existing resources, and while making full use of the existing nexuses.
The Specialized Section is invited to consider potential contributions, action items, and draft proposals for consideration by the Commission related to the theme of its seventieth session in 2023.

4. Analysis of the impact of agricultural quality standards on the trade of produce

Following discussions at the 2021 sessions of the Specialized Section on Standardization of Fresh Fruit and Vegetables and the Specialized Section on Standardization of Dry and Dried Produce, the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) expressed interest in implementing a joint study with the ECE on the impact of agricultural quality standards on the trade of fruit and vegetables. The results of the study are expected to be available by May 2022. The Specialized Section is invited to review the results of the study.

Documentation: Results of the study (ECE/CTCS/WP.7/GE.2/2022/INF.1)

5. Capacity-building and promotional activities

The secretariat and delegations will provide information about their promotional and capacity-building activities in the past year and preview upcoming events and training.

6. Revisions to the Standard Layout

The Specialized Section is invited to review proposed amendments to the 2020 Standard Layout for UNECE Standards on Dry and Dried Produce, submitted by the delegation of the United States.

Documentation: Proposed revisions to the Standard Layout for UNECE Standards on Dry and Dried Produce (ECE/CTCS/WP.7/GE.2/2022/3)

7. Development of new standards

(a) Dried persimmons

At its 2021 session, the Specialized Section decided to submit the draft standard for dried persimmons to the 2021 Working Party session for adoption as a new ECE recommendation for a one-year trial period. The Working Party adopted the recommendation for a one-year trial period.

The Specialized Section is invited to review the recommendation.

Documentation: Dried persimmons (ECE/CTCS/WP.7/2021/8)

(b) Raw and roasted inshell peanuts

At its 2020 session, the Specialized Section agreed on the inclusion of roasted peanuts in the draft new standard on raw inshell peanuts, thus changing its title to raw and roasted inshell peanuts. At its 2021 session, the Specialized Section decided to amend the sections on moisture content, classification and provisions concerning sizing and tolerances, and submit the draft standard for adoption by the Working Party as a recommendation for a one-year trial period, following the consultation period. The Working Party adopted the recommendation for a one-year trial period.

The Specialized Section is invited to review the recommendation.

Documentation: Raw and roasted inshell peanuts (ECE/CTCS/WP.7/2021/9)
Raw and roasted inshell peanuts, proposal by the delegation of Germany (ECE/CTCS/WP.7/GE.2/2022/5)

(c) Raw and roasted peanut kernels

At its 2020 session, the Specialized Section agreed on the inclusion of roasted peanut kernels in the draft new standard on raw peanut kernels, thus changing its title to raw and roasted peanut kernels. At its 2021 session, the Specialized Section reviewed the revised draft proposal, amending several sections, and decided to submit the draft standard for adoption by the Working Party as a recommendation for a one-year trial period, following the consultation period. The Working Party adopted the recommendation for a one-year trial period.

The Specialized Section is invited to review the recommendation.

Documentation: Raw and roasted peanut kernels (ECE/CTCS/WP.7/2021/10) Raw and roasted peanut kernels, proposal by the delegation of Germany (ECE/CTCS/WP.7/GE.2/2022/6)

(d) Inshell pecans

At its 2020 session, the Working Party adopted the draft standard for inshell pecans as a recommendation for a one-year trial period. At its 2021 session, the Specialized Section reviewed the recommendation, particularly the text related to colour classification and minimum requirements and submitted it to the Working Party, which adopted an extension of the trial period for the recommendation for inshell pecans by one year.

The Specialized Section is invited to review the recommendation.

Documentation: Inshell pecans (ECE/CTCS/WP.7/2021/6)

(e) Pecan kernels

At its 2020 session, the Working Party adopted a draft standard for pecan kernels as a recommendation for a one-year trial period. At its 2021 session the Specialized Section reviewed the recommendation, particularly the text related to minimum requirements and provisions concerning tolerances, and submitted it to the 2021 session of the Working Party which adopted an extension of the trial period by one year.

The Specialized Section is invited to review the recommendation.

Documentation: Pecan kernels (ECE/CTCS/WP.7/2021/7)

8. Review of existing standards

Cashew kernels

At its 2020 session, the Specialized Section decided to initiate the revision of the ECE standard for cashew kernels. At its 2021 session, the Specialized Section decided to postpone the discussion on a revision of the standard for cashew kernels to the 2022 session of the Specialized Section.

Documentation: Proposed revisions to the standard for cashew kernels (ECE/CTCS/WP.7/GE.2/2022/7)

9. Explanatory materials

(a) Cashew kernels

At its 2021 session, the Specialized Section agreed to postpone the review and finalization of the explanatory poster on cashew kernels until after the revision of the cashew kernel standard.

Documentation: Draft poster for cashew kernels (ECE/CTCS/WP.7/GE.2/2022/INF.2)
(b) Almond kernels
At its 2021 session, the delegation of Germany asked if producing countries could develop a poster on almond kernels, considering that the posters prepared so far have been well received and almond kernels are a very important produce in international trade. The delegation of the United States informed the Specialized Section of an almond kernel poster developed by the United States almond industry that was already circulated to some member countries and the Specialized Section secretariat and was available for all members. The Specialized Section decided to establish a working group consisting of Germany (rapporteur), the International Nut and Dried Fruit Council (INC), Tajikistan, and the United States, to discuss the draft. The Specialized Section agreed that the Working Group would review the draft in a follow-up session and prepare a draft almond kernel poster for the review of the Specialized Section at its 2022 session.

10. Sampling plan for tree nuts and dried produce and guidelines for inspections of dry and dried produce, and related workshops
At its 2021 session the Specialized Section finalized the draft sampling plan for tree nuts and dried produce and guidelines for inspections of dry and dried produce and approved it through an intersessional approval procedure. The sampling plan was subsequently submitted to the 2021 session of the Working Party for approval. As only minor editorial and picture layout remained to be done, the Working Party decided to adopt the text of the sampling plan, and to submit the full document, including pictures, for adoption through an intersessional procedure. The intersessional procedure was finalized in early 2022, and the document approved.

Following its adoption, the Specialized Section is invited to discuss the potential organization of workshops on the sampling plan for tree nuts and dried produce and guidelines for inspections of dry and dried produce.

Proposal by the delegation of the United States for workshops (ECE/CTCS/WP.7/GE.2/2022/9)

11. Sustainable Development Goal 12 and sustainable practices: food loss and waste prevention related to standards
The Specialized Section is invited to take note of the second edition of the Code of Good Practice – reducing food loss and ensuring optimum handling of fresh fruit and vegetables along the value chain, which was finalized and presented to the Working Party at its 2021 session, and related explanatory materials developed to facilitate its implementation. The document is submitted for information.

The Specialized Section is invited to discuss the possibility of developing similar guidelines for nuts and dried fruit.
