SPEAKER BIOGRAPHY

Gabrielle White is a senior trade policy advisor currently working for the Government of Canada where she leads a standards secretariat for the Department of Natural Resources. Her work is focused on advancing Canada's natural resources trade priorities. She previously worked as a Program Manager with the Standards Council of Canada (SCC) where her work focused on standards and conformance and oversaw SCC's input on the standardization components of Canada's Free Trade Agreements and regulatory cooperation.

In addition to her work in trade policy, Gabrielle is responsible for spearheading SCC's gender and standardization strategy, and continues to lead key initiatives in this area. She holds a Master's degree in Sociology.

Since 2021, Gabrielle has held the position of Vice Chair for the UNECE Working Party on Regulatory Cooperation and Standardization Policies (WP.6).
