PUBLIC SECTOR, WELFARE AND POLICIES

THE NATIONAL COORDINATION OF
AGEING POLICIES

MAJOR POLICY INITIATIVES
UNDERTAKEN FROM 2022

POINTS OF ATTENTION

The adaptation of societies in general, and of Italian society in particular, to population ageing recalls several points of attention for policy action

Demographic imbalances

Intergenerational inequalities and solidarity

Gender inequalities

Social and spatial inequalities

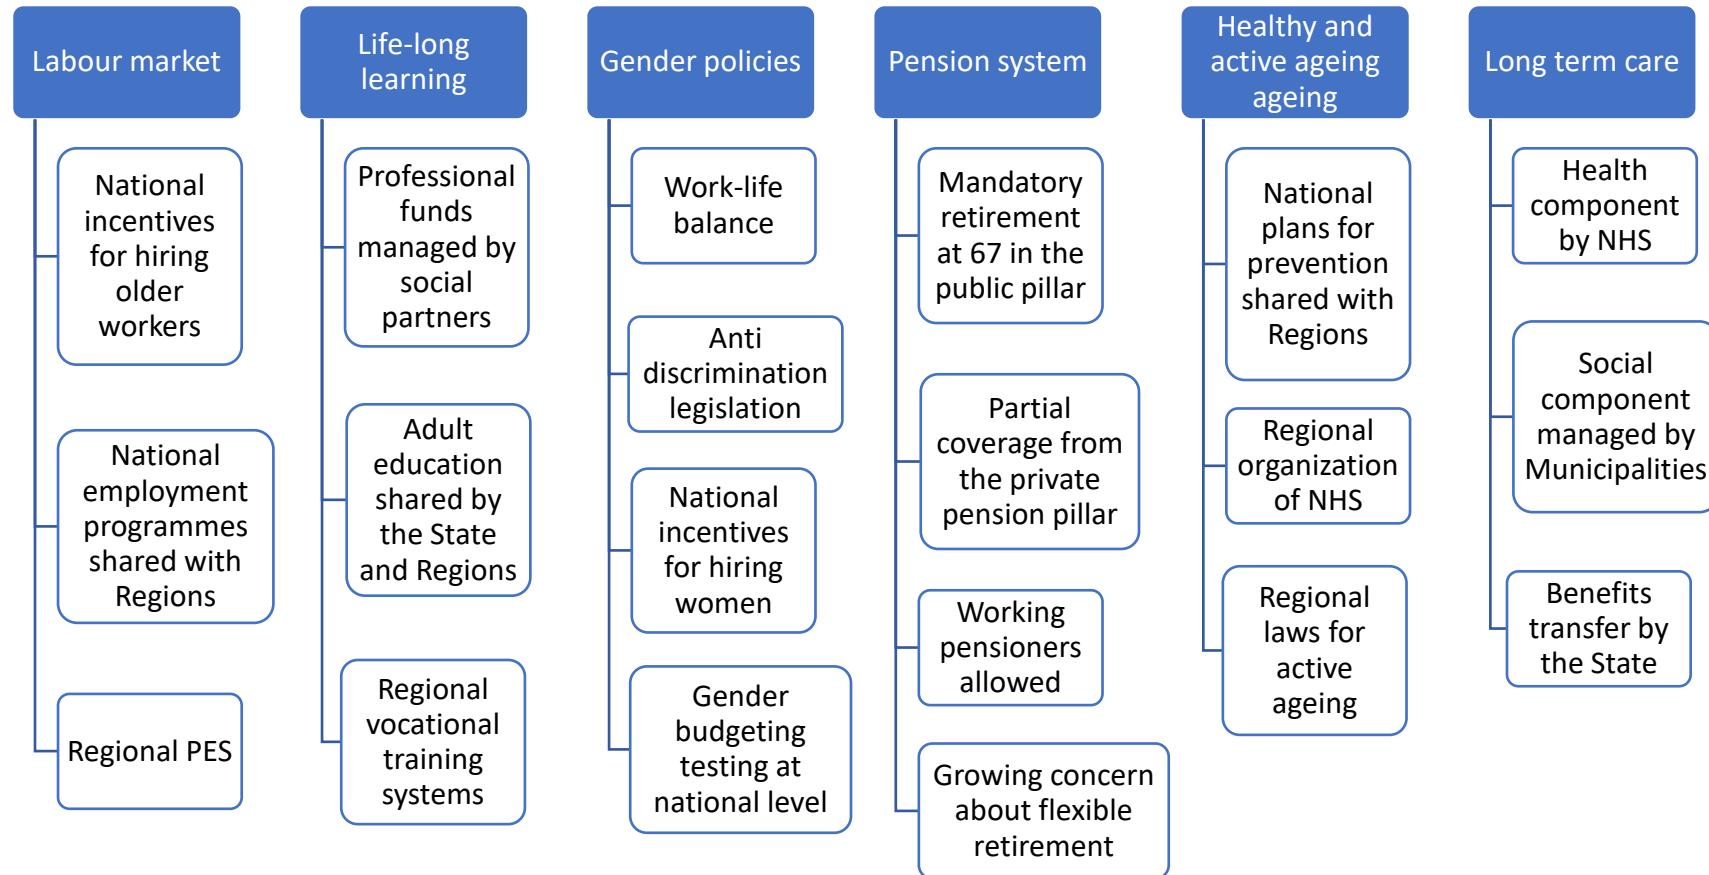

Health inequalities, also connected to health determinants

Social perception of population ageing and older persons

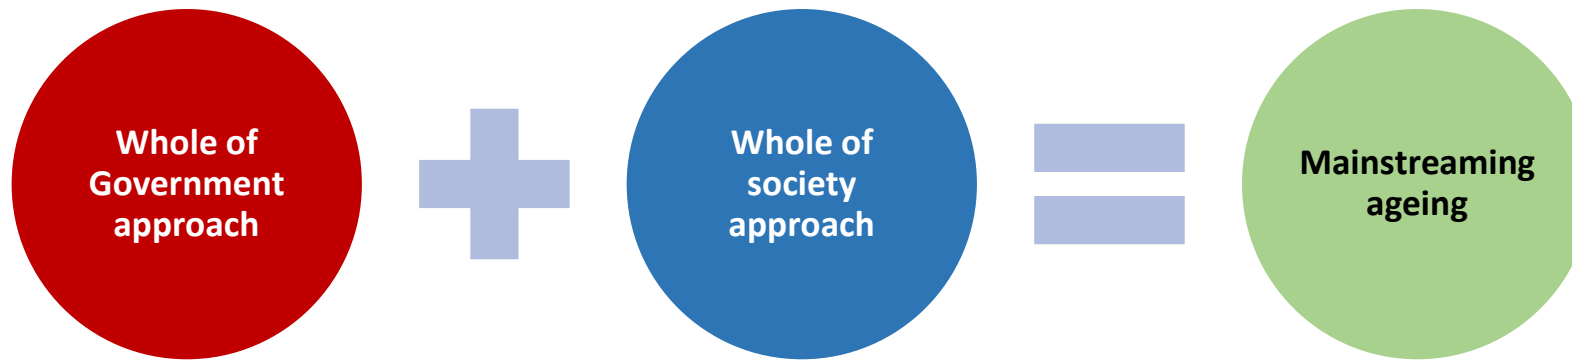

PUBLIC SECTOR, WELFARE AND POLICIES

The structure of the Italian public sector in general, and the welfare system in particular, still cause a certain fragmentation of policies, also in relation to the different social groups addressed

THE NATIONAL COORDINATION OF AGEING POLICIES

- ✓ Adopting a whole of Government approach and a whole of society approach at the same time seems the most effective way to overcome existing policy fragmentation and bottlenecks
- ✓ Overarching goal  Mainstreaming ageing in all policies

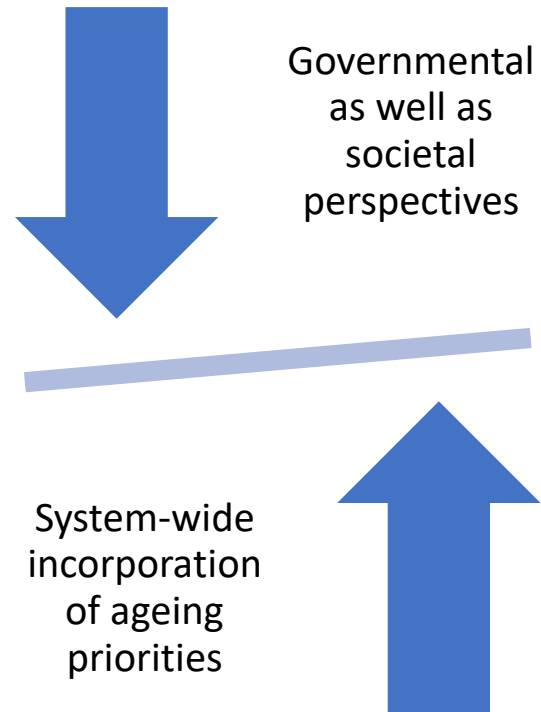

Whole of Government approach

- Engage relevant government departments and line ministries and specialized agencies
- (where possible) Engage Parliament as well as representatives from regional and local government

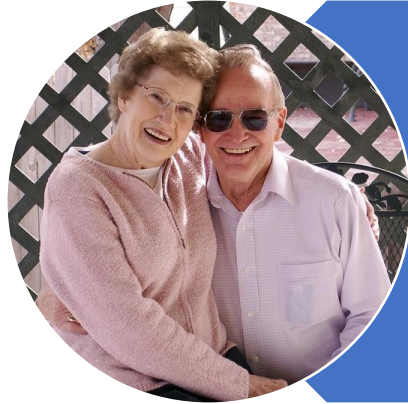

Whole of society approach

- Inclusion of non-governmental stakeholders
