

FELINDA WENNERBERG

LEGAL ADVISER

NATIONAL BOARD OF TRADE, SWEDEN

SPEAKER BIOGRAPHY

Felinda is an EU-lawyer and has for several years worked as a legal adviser at the National Board of Trade Sweden, the Swedish government agency for international trade, the EU internal market and trade policy.

In her role as legal adviser, she is specialized in matters relating to technical regulations and technical barriers to trade (TBT) in accordance with EU and WTO-law, as well as EU-standardization policy.

She has extensive experience in assisting businesses and national authorities in the removal of regulatory barriers to trade in goods and analysing trade policy development in the area of TBT. An integral part of her work also involves capacity building within TBT.

As a legal adviser she is also involved in the National Board of Trade's work on sustainability integration and coverage of external dimensions affecting trade policy.
