

SANA RONDA

PRESIDENT

LINGUAPHONE

SPEAKER BIOGRAPHY

Sana Ronda is a founder (2006) and CEO of Linguaphone France. Linguaphone is a key player in language training in France, specializing in supporting professionals whether they are in position or in transition and students to communicate and work in a foreign language.

Prior to Linguaphone, Sana started her career at Ernst & Young in financial audit and moved to strategic consulting with Bain and company after completing an MBA at INSEAD.

Sana has been participating to ISO Technical Committee on Education and learning services (TC 232) for quasi 10 years. She contributed to 3 standards and led two: ISO 29993 - Learning services outside formal education — Service requirements and ISO 29994 - Learning services — Additional requirements for distance learning.

Second WP.6 Forum

Annual meeting of Academia
Experts Focal Point Network of Education on Standardization

Virtual webinar

26 May 2023

15:00 – 19:00 CEST