

SEVDE ÖZBEY

SPECIALIST

THE STANDARDS AND METROLOGY INSTITUTE
FOR ISLAMIC COUNTRIES (SMIIC)

SPEAKER BIOGRAPHY

Sevde Özbey, born in 1990, completed a Bachelor of Arts in English Linguistics (Hacettepe University, Turkey) in 2012. As a M.A student in International Relations in İstanbul Kültür University, she is currently writing a thesis on the role and effectiveness of international organizations in ensuring and promoting gender equality.

Between January 2013-March 2014, she worked at Turkish Standards Institution (TSE) as a Translator to the TSE President during which she made significant contribution to the publishing of a book on standardization as well as translating and editing content of trainings on TSE standards.

In April 2014, she started to work at the Standards and Metrology Institute for Islamic Countries (SMIIC) and as a Specialist, she is the Technical Assistant of 2 SMIIC Technical Committees as well as being the gender focal point both at UN and OIC level, she is responsible for the preparation and execution of SMIIC Gender Action Plan. She has full professional proficiency in English and limited working proficiency in Arabic.

Second WP.6 Forum
GRS annual meeting

Return on experiences and challenges in implementing gender action plans for standards development

Virtual webinar

24 May 2023

13:00 – 16:00 CEST