CONDUCT OF POPULATION CENSUS

- Population survey was conducted 1-10 October 2019
- 11-15 October, spot post-enumeration tests were performed to check census coverage (10% of addresses for each census area)
- by the end of 2019, population census data was accepted and registered, and initial data control was performed
- in 2020, data from paper forms was entered into an electronic information system manually
- preliminary results were obtained in the second half of 2021
- at the end of the first half of 2022, the results of the population census were summarized

Main problems that arose during the preparation and conduct of the Population Census

Inconsistencies between the new address register data and actual addresses

Difference in the number of buildings and structures on schematic maps and their actual number

Incomplete addresses in cities and towns, lack of addresses in most rural areas

Spending more time on the survey because of inadequate responses from respondents

Significantly more time spent on entering data in computers compared to what was planned due to COVID-19 lockdown restrictions

DISSEMINATION OF CENSUS DATA

- The final census data was published in 30 volumes in August 2022.
- 28 volumes in Azerbaijani and 2 volumes in Azerbaijani and English
- The publications were sent to the Presidential Administration, Milli Majlis, the Cabinet of Ministers, ministries and other central organizations, UNFPA, higher education institutions, local executive authorities
- Based on the population census data, corresponding post-census recalculations of absolute and relative indicators of the size and structure of the population were carried out, which were published and posted on the Committee’s website in the statistical collection “Demographic Indicators of Azerbaijan”
- Along with that, census data has been disseminated by completing international questionnaires, responding to requests from various government organizations, legal entities and individuals
