

ICHROP 2023

International Conference on Human Rights of Older persons

29 November - 01 December 2023, Vienna

Mag. Verena Schriebl, BA

International Conference on Human Rights of Older Persons

Goals

- Advancing discourse within the OEWGA
- Spotighting challenges confronted by older persons
- Raise global awareness about senior citizens' concerns

Speakers

- Volker Türk – UN High Commissioner for Human Rights
- Ambassador Maria Squeff – Chair of the Open Ended Working Group
- Claudia Mahler – UN Independent Expert on the enjoyment of all human rights by older persons

International Conference on Human Rights of Older Persons

- International dialogue platform
- Rights, Challenges, and Solutions for Older Persons
 - academia, experts, civil society
 - Discussions about fragmented protection of older persons in the current human rights framework
- Ageing in the Digital Age: Rights, Realities and Responsibilities
 - political decision-makers, state representatives, the co-facilitators of the OEWGA
 - Solutions for living together in the age of digitalization, the lessons of COVID-19 and the implementation of the SDGs

International Conference on Human Rights of Older Persons

- joint Conference Declaration
 - Reflecting concerns and insights of all stakeholders
- Summary by the independent United Nations expert on the human rights of older persons