

Process for defining future work in the sub-area Supporting the development of agreements and the establishment of joint bodies

Planned timeline for the development of the PoW 2025-2027

On-line survey

Will be sent out around 10 November to Parties, non-Parties and partners

Thematic areas:

- How relevant are current programme areas?
- Which sub-programme / programme areas should appear?
- What are emerging issues?

Institutional structure:

- Does the institutional structure need to change?

Implementation:

- How can your country/organization contribute to the implementation of one or more areas of the Programme of work 2025-2027?

Drafting process

The Bureau, with the support of secretariat, will develop a first draft of the new PoW 2025-2027 on the basis of the survey's outcome and of the recommendations by various subsidiary bodies, incl. this workshop.

The draft PoW will be presented and discussed during the joint session of the Working Group on Monitoring and Assessment and the Working Group on IWRM taking place on 6-8 May 2024 in Geneva.

Comments and additional recommendations will be integrated in a revised draft that will be submitted for approval to the Meeting of the Parties in October 2024.

What are your views and suggestions for future work in this area?

Question for discussion

- What activities do you suggest for the sub-area 1.3 Supporting the development of agreements and the establishment of joint bodies under the Water Convention in 2025-2027?

You may distinguish between global / regional/ transboundary level

- Which other activities would be useful, to be carried out by other actors, e.g. partners of this workshop?

Thank you!
