

Implementing the goals of the 2022 Rome Ministerial Declaration | Item 5

Goal I - Promoting active and healthy ageing throughout life

Italy Policy Developments Responding to the Goals of the 2022 Rome Ministerial Declaration

Pietro Checcucci, Italy

Violence against older persons

Verena Schriebl, Austria

Supporting people experiencing the menopause in work in the UK

James Bishop, United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland

“Live safely at home” – a reform on an age-friendly society developed in cooperation

Experiences with a mainstreaming approach

Aina Strand, Norway

Implementing the goals of the 2022 Rome Ministerial Declaration | Item 5

Goal II - Ensuring access to long-term care and support for carers and families

The Commission on Care for Older Persons Abigail Chantler, Ireland InCARE Project Manuel Montero Rey, Spain
Safe Long-term Care Act Manon Therriault, Canada
Long-term care Act Ales Kenda, Slovenia
U.S. National Strategy to Support Caregivers Matthew Lim, United States of America

Implementing the goals of the 2022 Rome Ministerial Declaration | Item 5

Goal III - Mainstreaming ageing to advance a society for all ages

Strategy for Active and Healthy Ageing

Dragomir Knezevic, Serbia

Goal III: Mainstreaming ageing to advance a society for all ages

Elmas Esra CECELİ, Türkiye

Program on Active and Healthy Ageing in the Republic of Moldova

Aliona Cretu, Republic of Moldova