

- The principles and methods of environmental labeling according to DSTU ISO 14024:2028

Life cycle assessment

<https://www.ecolabel.org.ua/>

The requirements of environmental labeling standards should complement and expand upon mandatory requirements

The standard requirements should be measurable/verifiable and designate the product as more environmentally preferable compared to mandatory requirements for market entry (escalator principle)

Ukraine

Germany

Canada

<https://globalecolabelling.net/>

International Organization for Standardization

ISO 14024:2018

- Unbreakable Buchansky Lyceum № 9 opened its green classrooms for over 1,000 students in the new academic year of 2023

- Unbreakable Buchansky Lyceum № 9 opened its green classrooms for over 1,000 students in the new academic year of 2023

The use of environmentally certified construction materials not only ensures energy efficiency but also provides a high-quality and healthy indoor environment.

All energy-consuming devices, technology, and equipment meet the requirements of eco-design and environmental labeling standards.

- Unbreakable Buchansky Lyceum № 9 opened its green classrooms for over 1,000 students in the new academic year of 2023

- Unbreakable Buchansky Lyceum № 9 opened its green classrooms for over 1,000 students in the new academic year of 2023

- Unbreakable Buchansky Lyceum № 9 opened its green classrooms for over 1,000 students in the new academic year of 2023

- Unbreakable Buchansky Lyceum № 9 opened its green classrooms for over 1,000 students in the new academic year of 2023

