Dear Prof. Dr. Klinger,

Re: Communication to the Aarhus Convention Compliance Committee concerning compliance by Germany in connection with public participation on a draft amendment to the Climate Protection Act (ACCC/C/2023/203)

On 10 July 2023, the secretariat of the Convention on Access to Information, Public Participation in Decision-making and Access to Justice in Environmental Matters (Aarhus Convention) received the above communication from Deutsche Umwelthilfe e.V. addressed to the Compliance Committee of the Convention. The communication concerns compliance by Germany with article 8 of the Convention in connection with public participation with respect to the draft amendment to the Climate Protection Act. The communication was submitted in accordance with the provisions of chapter VI of the annex to decision I/7 of the Meeting of the Parties.

The communication has been registered under the symbol ACCC/C/2023/203, which you are invited to cite in future correspondence on the matter. All documentation relating to the communication is available on the Committee's website at: <https://unece.org/env/pp/cc/communications-from-the-public>.

The Compliance Committee, having considered the admissibility of the communication at its eightieth meeting (Geneva, 19–22 September 2023), has on a preliminary basis determined it to be admissible in accordance with paragraph 20 of the annex to decision I/7. A copy of the preliminary determination on admissibility is attached. Please note, however, that the Committee has not reached any conclusions with respect to the compliance issues referred to in the communication.

Please do not hesitate to contact the secretariat if you require any further information.

Yours sincerely,

Fiona Marshall
Secretary to the Aarhus Convention Compliance Committee
