Finally, we would like to point out that pursuant to Spanish privacy legislation nº3/2018 and Law nº39/2015, on the Administrative Procedure of the Public Administrations, all the information regarding any kind of mining administrative procedures, sanctioning procedures, environmental procedures, permitting procedures, among others, are subject to a strict duty of confidentiality of the subjects involved. That means, in terms of such regulations, (i) that it cannot be disclosed to third parties; (ii) the imposition of sanctions in case of non-compliance. In essence, all the information to be known by third parties have to be formally requested to the Spanish authorities.
