SPEAKER BIOGRAPHY

Technology, governance, and sustainability.

Caitlin Kraft-Buchman is CEO/Founder Women at the Table – a gender equality & systems change think tank based in Switzerland.

She is Co-Founder/Leader A+ Alliance for Inclusive Algorithms – a global coalition ensuring a world where machine learning does not wire already biased systems into our future. A+ Alliance is a leader of the UN's Generation Equality Action Coalition for Technology & Innovation for Gender Equality.

Caitlin leads the AI & Equality: Human Rights Toolbox initiative - a global multidisciplinary community that works for a human rights-based approach to AI development.

She is co-founder of the International Gender Champions - with hubs in Geneva, New York, Vienna, Nairobi, The Hague & Paris which brings together female & male heads of organizations, including the UN Secretary General, to break down gender barriers. She serves on the IGC Global Board.

She also serves as Civil Society lead for the World Benchmarking Alliance's Collective Impact Coalition for Digital Inclusion, and on the Strategic Board of the French government's Laboratory for Women's Rights Online. She was a founding member of the team that conceived and drafted UNECE's Gender Responsive Standards Initiative in 2018.
