STUDENT

SPEAKER BIOGRAPHY

Lukáš Kout – 19 years old driven and detail-oriented student from Slovakia with an interest in international relations and world trade. I am eager to gain strong knowledge in the field of diplomacy, negotiation strategies and processes. I do believe in core values such as ethics and responsibility to build a better world. I mostly pay a lot of attention between interconnection of responsibilities and people's rights.

Last year, World Federation of United Nations Associations (WFUNA) Training Programme has provided me a great opportunity to capitalize fundamental knowledge about the United Nations and international organizations which offered me insightful approaches into complex topics of human rights, sustainability and the purpose of multilateral diplomacy in today's world.
