Generic Statistical Information Model (GSIM) version 2.0

• GSIM provides a common language to describe information needed in statistical organizations – not just data, but our operations

• Revision process
  • Initial feedback on GSIM v1.5 (March 2022)
  • Update of GSIM according to feedback
  • Feedback on updated GSIM (June 2023)
  • Update of GSIM according to feedback
  • GSIM version 2.0 released (Dec 2023)
Generic Statistical Information Model (GSIM) version 2.0

• Main changes: addition of 6 information classes, the re-naming of 5 others and an update of the relationships among information classes, resulting in a clearer and more focused model released on Github

• GSIM revision team: Canada (Chair), Egypt, Finland, France, Hungary, Italy, Mexico, the Netherlands, Norway, UK, USA and UNECE