Questions relatives aux sociétés de classification*1.15.3.8 de l'ADN : Sociétés de classification – Preuve
de conformité avec la norme EN ISO/IEC 17020:2012*Communication de DNV SE* ***Introduction

1. À sa quarante-troisième session, le Comité de sécurité de l'ADN a demandé aux sociétés de classification ADN recommandées de soumettre un document officiel faisant valoir leur certification en cours de validité, conformément à la norme EN ISO/IEC 17020:2012 (à l'exception du paragraphe 8.1.3), pour examen à sa session suivante.
2. Les activités de la société DNV dans le domaine de la navigation intérieure sont conformes aux prescriptions générales applicables au domaine maritime définies par l'International Association of Classification Societies (IACS) et à plusieurs règles internationales et nationales, telles que les codes et conventions de l'Organisation maritime internationale (OMI). Toutes ses activités connexes font l'objet d'audits réguliers réalisés par des tiers, à savoir l'entreprise DEKRA, l'Agence européenne pour la sécurité maritime (AESM) et les administrations de l'État du pavillon ou de l'État côtier.
3. Les certificats délivrés à DNV par l'organisme de certification accrédité, DEKRA, sont joints en annexe au présent document. DNV souhaite souligner qu'elle a examiné toutes les prescriptions pertinentes de la norme ISO/IEC 17020:2012 et vérifié qu'elles étaient bien respectées dans son système de qualité, ce qu'ont expressément confirmé les auditeurs
