

VICTORIA TUOMISTO

TRADE FACILITATION ADVISER

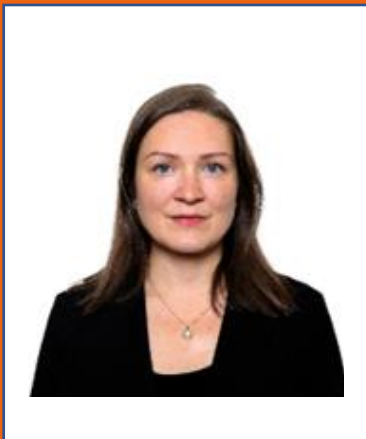

INTERNATIONAL TRADE CENTRE (ITC)

SPEAKER BIOGRAPHY

Victoria Tuomisto is a trade facilitation and policy adviser at the International Trade Centre. Since 2016, she has conducted ITC's technical assistance programmes towards the implementation of trade facilitation and policy reforms in Africa and Asia, with a focus on business-driven border reforms and regional integration. Victoria also manages the editorial development of ITC's trade facilitation and policy for business section, including the guide on "Managing Risk for Safe, Efficient Trade".

Prior to joining ITC, Victoria worked as an editor and analyst for The Economist Group, where she managed research projects on industry, economics and business topics as well as forecasting for emerging markets across Europe, the Middle East and Africa.

She holds an MSc in Political Economy and a BSc in Economic History from the London School of Economics.
