1	Strengthen the role and engagement of national focal points on ageing in activities of the Standing Working Group on Ageing , including through the development of Terms of Reference for national focal points on ageing to strengthen clarity on their roles and responsibilities, including in their respective national institutions.	UNECE accepts the recommendation. The secretariat will propose the development of terms of reference for national focal points on ageing to the Standing Working Group on Ageing at its sixteenth meeting in November 2023, responding to this recommendation. If agreed, terms of reference will be developed in 2024 and tabled for adoption at the seventeenth meeting of the Standing Working Group on Ageing in November 2024.	Lisa Warth, Chief, Population Unit, Statistical Division	31/12/2024	In progress: The SWGA agreed to the development of terms of reference for national focal points on ageing at their 16th meeting in November 2023. The secretariat prepared a first draft in Spring 2024 which was discussed with the Bureau of the Standing Working Group on Ageing at its Spring meeting. The draft was then shared with members of SWGA for feedback in June 2024.
2	Further enhance the usefulness of project outputs (policy briefs, policy seminars and guidelines for mainstreaming ageing) to national policymakers by: (a) providing more guidance on practical issues and challenges related to policy implementation and more details on the good practice examples shared; (b) providing a summary version of policy briefs with key messages to facilitate dissemination; (c) encouraging translation of policy briefs/summaries into national languages; (d) developing a checklist for mainstreaming ageing into policies.	UNECE accepts the recommendation. The secretariat will undertake the following actions: (a) Consult members of the Standing Working Group on Ageing regarding how this recommendation can be addressed in the new Programme of Work 2023-2027. (b) Prepare summary versions of policy briefs highlighting key messages. (c) Encourage members of the Standing Working Group on Ageing to translate policy briefs and summaries into	Lisa Warth, Chief, Population Unit, Statistical Division	31/12/2024	In progress: a) at the 16th meeting the SWGA discussed peer learning through country visits as an additional activity through which more detailed guidance and inspiration on practical issues can be provided b) Summary versions of policy briefs No. 28 (2023) and No. 29 (2024) were prepared and the secretariat will continue to do so for future issues. c) the translation of policy briefs on online course was encouraged at the 16th meeting of the SWGA and further discussed by the Bureau. Several member States volunteered to translate policy briefs into national languages including Austria, Slovakia, Spain, Portugal, and Türkiye.

If approved by the Standing Working Group on Ageing in 2023, the checklist will be developed in 2024.			d) proposal approved. Development in progress.
3	Strengthen the MIPAA/RIS review process to become a stronger accountability mechanism for governments, by: (a) simplifying/standardizing the reporting process further, for example by considering to focus the reporting guidelines and data collection on fewer priority issues if possible and appropriate; (b) leveraging the UNECE Ageing Policies Database for continuous monitoring and reporting on MIPAA/RIS implementation to support the next MIPAA/RIS review and appraisal process and highlight synergies between MIPAA/RIS and the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development; (c) enhancing the engagement of permanent missions in Geneva in the review process and ministerial conference preparations to ensure high-level participation at the Ministerial Conference and accountability.	UNECE accepts the recommendation. Preparations for the next MIPAA/RIS review process will commence in 2025, when the modalities for the next review will be developed and approved by the SWGA. The recommendations made by the evaluation will inform this process.	Lisa Warth, Chief, Population Unit, Statistical Division	31/12/2025	Not yet started. Progress on this item will be reported in 2025.
4	Include cross-cutting issues such as gender, disability, human rights and climate change in the programming cycle more systematically by: (a) mainstreaming these issues in situation analyses and, e.g., integration of specific gender-sensitive results and performance measures; (b) encouraging disaggregated data collection and monitoring by governments and civil society; (c) ensuring that policy briefs and policy discussions	UNECE accepts the recommendation. The secretariat will continue to mainstream cross-cutting issues such as gender, disability, human rights and climate change. Actions will include: (a) explicitly addressing cross-cutting issues in road maps for mainstreaming ageing and policy recommendations; (b) including cross-cutting issues in any data-related work undertaken by the secretariat/SWGA to	Lisa Warth, Chief, Population Unit, Statistical Division	31/12/2024	In progress. (c) an internal checklist for policy authors and event organisers was developed and has been used to guide the preparation of the Policy Brief on Ageing No. 29 and Policy Dialogues on Ageing organised in 2024.

	take systematically account of regional diversity and cross-cutting issues such as gender, disability, human rights, climate change by developing check lists for authors and project staff encouraging an approach that mainstreams cross-cutting issues.	monitor population ageing and the situation of older persons as well as the implementation of MIPAA/RIS; (c) developing a checklist for policy brief authors and event organisers on how to address regional diversity and cross-cutting issues, as appropriate, including gender, disability, human rights and climate change.
5	Address the instability of the staffing and budget situation in the Secretariat to ensure continuity and efficient use of the know-how of current staff and engage in fundraising for additional resources earmarked for “the work of the Standing Working Group on Ageing and its Secretariat”.	UNECE accepts the recommendation. The secretariat will continue to engage in fundraising to ensure continuous capacity of the secretariat to support the programme of work of the Standing Working Group on Ageing. This will be done through follow-up projects on ageing to which member States can pledge financial support.	Lisa Warth, Chief, Population Unit, Statistical Division	31/12/2025	In progress. Fundraising strategies to support activities of the Standing Working Group on Ageing and its Secretariat through the Ageing Fund were discussed with the Bureau of SWGA at its 16 th meeting in April 2024.
6	Increase the sustainability of project results by encouraging members of the SWGA Bureau, national focal points on ageing and partner organizations to undertake follow-up activities and continue working on processes already initiated to enhance ownership and ensure more sustainability of its work.	UNECE accepts the recommendation. The secretariat will encourage members of the Standing Working Group on Ageing to implement products developed by the Standing Working Group on Ageing in their respective countries, including through translation of knowledge products and capacity-development materials into national languages and their dissemination and use at the national level. In addition to the policy briefs already covered under recommendation 2(c), this also applies to the translation of Guidelines for Mainstreaming Ageing, the online course on mainstreaming ageing and its integration into national learning platforms, and the organisation of national training or expert workshops, using the workshop materials developed by the Standing Working Group on Ageing.	Lisa Warth, Chief, Population Unit, Statistical Division	31/12/2025	In progress.
