
Enhancing GDP Estimates Through Comprehensive Economic Surveys and Advanced Data Analysis

Thuraya Alkharoosi (Dubai Data and Statistics, United Arab Emirates)

tskharoosi@dsc.gov.ae

Abstract

Our submission focuses on the methodologies and practices involved in preparing economic surveys and analyzing administrative data to generate accurate and timely GDP estimates on both annual and quarterly bases, addition to that creation input-output tables, and estimates of the digital economy and creative economies, along with other vital economic variables.